Yes, there is way too much violence on TV. Also, there is way too much sexual inuendo and references on TV. This filth desensitizes both adults and children. There is enough in everyday life to bring humanity down, we don't need it on TV as well.